

OVERNIGHT CAMPING AGREEMENT FOR TCSA RANGES 2/13/2014

- 1. Overnight camping on the Rattlesnake Mountain Shooting Facility (RMSF) will only be allowed for those individuals participating in scheduled shooting matches or discipline related events. No other public recreational overnight camping is allowed on the RMSF.
- 2. Each camper will have a signed Overnight Camping Agreement indicating their concurrence with these Rules, as well as any other rules required by their respective shooting discipline on file with the Tri-Cities Shooting Association (TCSA).
- 3. Campers will be given a gate combination, key, or proxy card to allow them to enter and exit their respective camping area. Gate locks must remain daisy chained, and be locked prior to 9:00 AM and after 3:00 PM. Keys or proxy cards will be returned to the match/event coordinator at the conclusion of the camping event.
- 4. Campers may use the provided Port-a-Potties, but the HESA/Rose-Iris Ranges and the Shotgun Range kitchen, toilet facilities, & grounds are off limits for overnight camping or for use by campers. All vehicles must always remain on graveled roads or designated parking areas.
- 5. Alcoholic beverages are NOT allowed on the RMSF property.
- 6. Pets & children must be supervised, and their owners are responsible for properly disposing of any waste or mess they create.
- 7. Quiet Time will be observed from 10 PM to 6 AM (generators turned off).
- 8. All garbage and debris must be removed from RMSF property, and shall be deposited in an appropriate off site garbage container. The discharge/leakage of any amount of oil, grease, gasoline or diesel fuel, other petroleum products, antifreeze, acid, camper grey or black water, on RMSF property is prohibited.
- 9. Open fires require preauthorization from the TCSA and the Benton County Fire Dept. Fireworks are not permitted on the RMSF.
- 10. Shooting activities are only allowed at any of the RMSF Ranges when a currently certified TCSA Range Safety Officer (RSO/RO) is present.

I have read and will comply with all the camping rules and requirements stated above. I understand I am both financially & legally responsible for any damage or injury I may cause, and I indemnify BENTON COUNTY, RMSF, TCSA, and their respective Board of Directors from any liability associated with my actions.

---

Printed Name and Signature

---

Date Signed